PHYSICIANS RECOMMEND CASTORIA
CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmacological societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrup, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information—Hall's Journal of Health.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.
Dr. R. H. Hallett, Scott, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria often for infants during my practice, and find it very satisfactory."
Dr. William Belmont, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."
Dr. J. H. Taft, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."
Dr. R. J. Hamlen, of Detroit, Mich., says: "I prescribe your Castoria extensively, as I have never found anything to equal it for children's troubles. I am aware that there are imitations in the field, but I always see that my patients get Fletcher's."
Dr. Wm. J. McCann, of Omaha, Neb., says: "As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have in my years of practice found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."
Dr. J. R. Clausen, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "The name that your Castoria has made for itself in the tens of thousands of homes blessed by the presence of children, scarcely needs to be supplemented by the endorsement of the medical profession, but I, for one, most heartily endorse it and believe it an excellent remedy."
Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Castoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physician who has raised a family, as I have, will join me in heartiest recommendation of Castoria."

MONKEY IS DENIED BATH PRIVILEGE

Permit to Official at Leno. (By Direct Wire-Exclusive Dispatch.) LENOX (Mass.) July 19.—Permission was denied today to Miss Beatrice Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cortlandt F. Bishop, to allow her pet monkey, named Prince, to bathe in the swimming pool at the hotel where she is staying. The children of the club members were frightened by the monkey, who has crossed the Atlantic eight times, been up in an airplane and ridden hundreds of miles in an automobile.

Long Beach. (By Direct Wire-Exclusive Dispatch.) LONG BEACH (Cal.) July 19.—Prospects of a several day's visit by Charles E. Hughes to Harriman Lodge on Upper Klamath Lake, twenty-eight miles northeast from this city, some time in August, has aroused considerable enthusiasm. The invitation sent by Capt. J. W. Fienman, general manager of the Klamath Development Company, owner of Harriman Lodge, to Ralph E. Williams, Oregon member of the National Republican Committee, has been accepted. Williams, who is expected to bring with him a number of his friends, including the late Senator Charles E. Hughes, will be met by the Klamath Development Company, and will be taken to the lodge by a special motorcade.

UNKNOWN WOMAN DEAD ON BEACH

FOUND FACE IN SAND WITH NO IDENTIFYING MARKS. (LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) LONG BEACH, July 19.—Discovered by early morning bathers resting face downward on the sand just above the high tide line, the body of an elderly woman lies at the beach. Undertaking parlors still unidentified tonight. No cards, letters, jewelry or laundry marks could be found on the victim, whose only property consisted of a small pocketbook containing a dime and an unused return trip ticket to Los Angeles over the Pacific Electric Railroad dated July 18.

She is described as being about 65 years old, 5 ft. 5 in. in height, of slight build, black hair streaked with gray and dressed in black. There are several bad bruises about her head and face, which might have been caused by her being thrown against the rocks by the strong tide.

Mr. Hughes held a long conference today with Chairman Wilcox in which the chief topics of discussion were the proposed adjustment of local differences and the program for the nominee's western tour.

After dining tonight with former Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, Mr. Hughes, who came here today for a meeting of the National Committee, also held an informal reception.

In a statement which he gave out for publication, former Senator Hughes said that he had not yet decided whether or not to support Mr. Hughes, but that he would take the stump in the name of the National Republican party, which he helped to organize, and that he would not support Mr. Hughes unless he could be persuaded to do so.

STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER

It's mercury! Attacks the bones, salivates and makes you sick. There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of DODSON'S LIVER TONIC, a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and cannot salivate. Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nervous tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic and you will wake up feeling great. No more dizziness, no more headache, no more nervousness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

EXPECTS TO STOP SPREAD OF PEST

(By A. F. NIGHT WIRE.) NEW YORK, July 19.—The Federal public health service is now at work with the necessary men and money and will wage a successful fight against the spread of infantile paralysis into other States, Dr. Charles E. Banks, senior surgeon in charge of the government operations in this city, declared tonight. His prediction was made in the face of reports of thirty deaths and 142 new cases in the twenty-four hours ended at 10 a.m. today. One of the new cases was found in an exclusive section in Fifth avenue.

INVITE HUGHES TO MOUNTAINS

TRUPOUS AT WORK BREAKING HORSES

NEW MOUNTS BY THOUSANDS COMING TO BORDER. (By Direct Wire-Exclusive Dispatch.) EL PASO, July 19.—Thousands of horses and mules are coming into the custody of Robert D. Gordon, sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, after the writ of habeas corpus, preventing his removal to Washington to answer for alleged contempt of the House, was dismissed by Federal Judge Hand. Mr. Gordon is not in the city, however, and Mr. Marshall is not actually in his charge.

FEDERAL ATTORNEY IS UNDER ARREST

MAY BE REPRIMANDED FOR CONTEMPT OF HOUSE. (By A. F. NIGHT WIRE.) NEW YORK, July 19.—Atty. Gen. Snowden Marshall was technically in the custody of Robert D. Gordon, sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, after the writ of habeas corpus, preventing his removal to Washington to answer for alleged contempt of the House, was dismissed by Federal Judge Hand. Mr. Gordon is not in the city, however, and Mr. Marshall is not actually in his charge.

CEDARHURST (N. Y.), July 19.—George M. Church of New Jersey and Willis E. Davis of California won the semi-final matches in the cup singles here today in the tennis tournament on the turf of the Rockaway Hunting Club. Church outplayed and out-placed Leonard Beckman, Princeton, at 6-5, 6-2.

Davis, in a rallying and smashing game, defeated A. H. Man, Jr., former Yale champion, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

TO CURTAIL ON IMPROVEMENTS.

Works Board Cuts Out Items

Totaling Big Sum.

Doesn't Take Kindly to Plans of Efficiency Folk.

Says Reorganization Proposed is Impracticable.

The Board of Public Works yesterday reported to the City Council on the suggestions of the efficiency department which proposed further cuts in the City Engineer's budget amounting to $229,000.

Of these recommendations, the Budget Committee assumed entire responsibility for adoption of items amounting to approximately $150,000, while the report of the Board of Public Works was in preparation, and this report makes no specific mention of any of the efficiency Commission recommendations.

Since the Budget Committee has made final reductions in the departments under this board, it is not necessary to burden your honorable body with a discussion of the items of reduction suggested by the efficiency department," the Board of Public Works report says.

"Suffice it to say that some of the items of reduction suggested by the efficiency department had already been eliminated from the budget, other items were either doubtful in value or it would take time to work them out and need further consideration, while some we could neither accept nor recommend at all."

CANNOT ACCEPT PLANS.

The report says further that no changes in methods or organization of the department had already been made, and that the efficiency department is not worthy of consideration to begin to compensate for the loss of service in value or it would take time to work them out and need further consideration, while some we could neither accept nor recommend at all."

Even during the recent discussion of tax reduction, the increase has grown," the report continues. "Most interesting of all, some of the items have made most loud lamentations concerning taxes have, during this very period, urged this board to reduce the most extraordinary service on streets affecting their property."

"No permanent relief can come from shifting money from one fund to the other, nor is it right to deceive the people into thinking that just as much work can be accomplished with less money."

The report urges city and county consolidation as a remedy for the tax situation, and the encouragement of industry is also suggested as vital to the welfare of the community.

TO ROUTE VESSELS VIA THE CANAL.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WEBER.)

SEATTLE (Wash.) July 19.—The vessels of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha will be routed to New York through the Panama Canal instead of Seattle, if the present water front conditions resulting from the longshoremen's strike continue. This was the substance of a statement made by the manager of the company's foreign department, S. Mihira, who arrived here from Japan today.

"Our ships will not permit such delays as have occurred lately," he said, "and it would be an easy matter for us to change our routing direct to New York."

ALLEGED VICTIM OF DOUBLE CONSPIRACY.

WITHIN PLOTS.

Double Arson Conspiracy is Charged by Police.

Say Woman was to be Victim of Shred Fire Buys.

She's Released When Their Story Tumbles Flat.

"Dago Mack" reputation to the effect "he's got the noodle" stands in jeopardy because of his last intrigue. The young gangster, with his first wife, "Nigger" Joe Anthony, is in the City Jail, charged with having hatched an amazing plot to involve his benefactors, Mrs. Fannie C. Southwell, storekeeper at No. 347 East Seventh street. Yesterday Mrs. Southwell was released by Detective Ingram and Williams, and the two young men, each under 30 years old, held for further investigation.

According to the police, African boldness and Italian cunning were blended in the plot, which was to have netted all of the traffic which passed the store. The traffic was to be secured by the two young men, who were to be paid $1000 to $1200. And to carry it out, they sacrificed the friendship of the elderly little German woman whose keen common sense and sympathy has won her the affection of the "Mother."

"Dago Mack" bears the correct name of Mack M. McKnight, No. 1115 East Thirtieth street. Joe Anthony is one of the graduates. Neither of them when Louis Benson started a store across the street from "Mother" Southwell and Benson married. Benson's business. He took trade from Mrs. Southwell.

About that time "Dago Mack" happened into Mother Southwell's store and told her he wanted some money. He said he was going to get a gun, she said, and kill a man who was paying attention to his sweetheart. Mrs. Southwell was misled him, and later his mother and sister called Mrs. Southwell on the telephone and thanked her for wisdom, saying Mack now considered her almost as dear as his mother. And because Mack trusted almost all devotion, Mrs. Southwell let him borrow the store and help her at odd jobs.

Both McKnight and Anthony were in need of money Monday. So McKnight tried to pass a bad check on Mrs. Southwell. But she refused to cash it. McKnight blocked his effort.

Tuesday McKnight went to Benson's store and told Benson he could save him from being killed or having his store burned. Benson desired to know more. McKnight said he had been hired by Mrs. Southwell to eliminate a competitor.

Benson notified the police, and Detective Ingram and Williams attended the case. Benson immediately afterwards arrested McKnight and Anthony. Mrs. Southwell, the boys said they had a written contract by which they were to receive $1000 each. Benson's place. They failed to produce the contract, and a thorough search of Mrs. Southwell's place was fruitless.

Then they learned, even if the agreement had been made, that McKnight was acting treacherously and that Anthony was notorious. And after talking with Mrs. Southwell yesterday they dismissed the case against her. The District Attorney and City Prosecutor refuse to prosecute.

Outset. Mechanical Head Out. Superior Woolley Demands and Gets Resignation of High-Salaried County Employee—Numerous Complaints Said to be Reason.

R. E. Burton, head of the mechanical department of Los Angeles county, was let out yesterday by the Board of Supervisors. His letter of resignation was tendered by Superior Woolley, and stated that it was submitted in compliance with a request made by the recipient of the letter. Superior Woolley is in charge of the mechanical department for the board. He has received numerous complaints about the management.

A number of other changes may also result and the entire matter will be thrashed out at the meeting of the board. Burton will not go into effect for sixty days, during which time the efficiency of the department will be decided on. Burton will be in the place, which is one of the most important in the county, paying $225 per month.

Well, Well! Pictures are Noisy. At Least so says Superior Norton in Objection to Paying for Stereoscopic Views to be Used in the County's Branch Libraries.

and the two young men, each under 30 years old, held for further investigation.

According to the police, African boldness and Italian cunning were blended in the plot, which was to have netted all of the traffic which passed the store.

The traffic was to be secured by the two young men, who were to be paid $1000 to $1200. And to carry it out, they sacrificed the friendship of the elderly little German woman whose keen common sense and sympathy has won her the affection of the "Mother."

"Dago Mack" bears the correct name of Mack M. McKnight, No. 1115 East Thirtieth street. Joe Anthony is one of the graduates.

Neither of them when Louis Benson started a store across the street from "Mother" Southwell and Benson married.

Benson's business. He took trade from Mrs. Southwell.

About that time "Dago Mack" happened into Mother Southwell's store and told her he wanted some money.

He said he was going to get a gun, she said, and kill a man who was paying attention to his sweetheart.

Mrs. Southwell was misled him, and later his mother and sister called Mrs. Southwell on the telephone and thanked her for wisdom.

saying Mack now considered her almost as dear as his mother. And because Mack trusted almost all devotion, Mrs. Southwell let him borrow the store and help her at odd jobs.

Both McKnight and Anthony were in need of money Monday. So McKnight tried to pass a bad check on Mrs. Southwell.

But she refused to cash it. McKnight blocked his effort.

Tuesday McKnight went to Benson's store and told Benson he could save him from being killed or having his store burned.

Benson desired to know more. McKnight said he had been hired by Mrs. Southwell to eliminate a competitor.

Benson notified the police, and Detective Ingram and Williams attended the case.

Benson immediately afterwards arrested McKnight and Anthony. Mrs. Southwell, the boys said they had a written contract by which they were to receive $1000 each.

Benson's place. They failed to produce the contract, and a thorough search of Mrs. Southwell's place was fruitless.

Then they learned, even if the agreement had been made, that McKnight was acting treacherously and that Anthony was notorious.

And after talking with Mrs. Southwell yesterday they dismissed the case against her. The District Attorney and City Prosecutor refuse to prosecute.

Outset. Mechanical Head Out. Superior Woolley Demands and Gets Resignation of High-Salaried County Employee—Numerous Complaints Said to be Reason.

R. E. Burton, head of the mechanical department of Los Angeles county, was let out yesterday by the Board of Supervisors.

His letter of resignation was tendered by Superior Woolley, and stated that it was submitted in compliance with a request made by the recipient of the letter.

Superior Woolley is in charge of the mechanical department for the board. He has received numerous complaints about the management.

A number of other changes may also result and the entire matter will be thrashed out at the meeting of the board.

Burton will not go into effect for sixty days, during which time the efficiency of the department will be decided on.

Burton will be in the place, which is one of the most important in the county, paying $225 per month.

Well, Well! Pictures are Noisy. At Least so says Superior Norton in Objection to Paying for Stereoscopic Views to be Used in the County's Branch Libraries.

"Why put such pictures in the libraries?" asked Superior Norton yesterday of the board, when the matter of payment for some stereoscopic views came up. "They're too noisy and they have no place in a library, I should think," he informed Mrs. Celia Gleason, the county librarian, much to her surprise.

Miss Gleason endeavored to explain that all perfectly regulated libraries have stereoscopic views for use of those readers who are deluged into travel books or historical works, and that with the aid of the pictures they gain a much more comprehensive idea of the subject than they could otherwise get.

Superior Norton was the only member of the board who voted against yesterday's purchase of pictures which have been distributed throughout the 425 branch libraries of the county. He stated that he believed them a needless expense. The pictures were purchased a number of months ago, before regulations were necessary, and this was the cause of an inquiry into the matter.

ASK CASH AND CUT IN RATES.

Long-standing Coal Tariff Controversy Reopened.

Inland Shippers Claim Gross Rate Discriminations.

Examiner for Commerce Body Begins Week's Hearing.

I. G. Bissell, examiner of the Interstate Commerce Commission, yesterday began a series of hearings at the Federal Building. It is expected that the bulk of the week will be occupied in the taking of testimony.

The case on yesterday was that of Byron T. Rowan and others against the Santa Fe, the complainants alleging that coal rates from New Mexico, Utah and Colorado to points intermediate to Los Angeles exceed those to Los Angeles.

The points involved are Gallup, N. M.; Castlegate, Storers, Standerville, Thompson, Hiawatha, East Hiawatha, Panther and Moreland, Utah, and Rock Springs, Wyo., whence shipments of coal are made to San Bernardino, Redlands, Upland, Ontario, Highgrove, Riverdale, Corona, Arlington, Santa Ana, Orange, Pomona, North Platte, Claremont, Lodi, Santa Dimas, Azusa, Glendora and Pasadena.

It is alleged that the present tariff of rates is unjust and unreasonable, as compared with the rates from the same points of origin to Los Angeles; that the rate of $5.15 per ton from said points of origin to Los Angeles is a discrimination in coal in Los Angeles to sell at the complaining destination points to the detriment of the State.

It is also alleged that the above destinations are in the vicinity of Los Angeles and that the rate of $1.10 per ton on coal from Los Angeles to the destination points is a discrimination.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is requested to order the establishment of just and equitable rates as a maximum in the future for the transportation of coal between the points of origin and points of destination, and to order the repayment of $15,529.90 in respect for collections unlawfully made.

Home Again. WESTERN WOMAN'S TALK OF THE EAST.

MRS. BURDETTE TELLS OF AN EXTENDED VISIT.

Believes Work of Women in All-Trade Lines is Much More Appreciated Here than in New York, and Praises Our Press for its Recognition of Their Efforts.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette has just returned from a two months' trip in the East, and is glad to be in the West again, where the heat is dry and the fruits are better.

"Most of the fruit served in eastern hotels," said Mrs. Burdette, "is California fruit—3000 miles from its native land."

When asked if the trip has been a pleasant one, she replied: "Yes, a pleasant one and a successful one. The change was a benefit to me physically. While in California, I was the most perfect specimen of a woman, and I am more and more convinced one must get out of the East to continue in their education, take in new interests, acquire larger range of vision, broaden sympathies and higher ideals."

There is nothing like travel to accomplish all this, if one is a traveler and a traveler student. I went East for three or four different things, and I am glad to be back here.

NEW IN POLITICS. The Business Men's Political Club is a new departure in politics, which is expected to make votes for the Republican candidate for United States Senator.

The spirit of the movement is founded upon a universal demand for the uplifting of California. The club has been so closely identified with the upbuilding of California, that it is the first manufacturer of international fame, establishing a business on the Pacific Coast, the business men in all lines have taken a wide and active interest in its behalf.

The organization already has 2500 members in Los Angeles, and branches are being started in other cities in Southern California.

At the same time a similar organization is being started in San Francisco, in the hope that there will be some service achieved for California through the representation of a business man in the United States Senate.

PETITIONS FILED. Mr. Booth's nominating petitions were filed late yesterday afternoon by Butte Armstrong, campaign manager. Several hundred more signatures than were necessary were attached to the petitions.

Mr. Booth departed last night for San Francisco, where he will arrange the establishment of just and equitable rates for the transportation of coal between the points of origin and points of destination, and to order the repayment of $15,529.90 in respect for collections unlawfully made.

Deep. DUE TO STORMS. Submarine Disturbances are Said to Have Torn up Kelp, which Litters Beaches, and Cutters are Held Helpless by Investigators.

The great masses of kelp washed ashore at last week's beach party during the last several weeks were not released by the kelp cutters, as suggested by some of those complaining of the condition of the beaches. A committee of citizens of Redondo Beach, Wilmington, Long Beach and Torrance, who are members of the Board of Supervisors yesterday reported that the kelp had been torn up by the action of heavy waves which had ripped it from its moorings on the bed of the ocean.

The action of the waves was the result of a storm which had been predicted, and the action of the waves was the result of a storm which had been predicted.

ALHAMBRA—“SHOES” BY LOIS WEBER
 The name of the big feature film which David Griffith has had in course of production for over a year, is “Shoes.” It is a dramatic story of a woman who, after the death of her husband, is forced to become a prostitute in order to support her mother and two children. The story is based on the novel by Louis Brandeis, and the film is being produced by Griffith. The cast includes Mary Pickford, Charles Chaplin, and others. The film is being shown at the Alhambra Theatre in Los Angeles.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

(At Home.)—Battered hints of a chance for peace in Europe, together with declining quotations at Liverpool, affected Chicago wheat prices and caused a nervous market closing.
Wall Street recovered from the selling flurry which for a day or two subjected many securities, notably those of the government, to pressure. These issues showed pronounced powers of recuperation, and gains averaging two or three points were registered. Money was easier, even than the day before, both as to call and time loans. There were indications of short covering of short contracts. Bonds lagged behind the stock list, showing some irregularity. Total sales were $2,435,000.
(Abroad.)—Samuel McRoberts, senior vice-president of the National City Bank of New York, called for home from Stockholm after completing arrangements for a loan of $50,000,000 to the Russian government. Mr. Roberts says Russia now offers a wonderful opportunity to American capital and business enterprise.

MR. DANIELS'S PRESS AGENTS.

The press agents of Secretary Daniels have enthusiastically announced that our ships are equipped with "the finest anti-aircraft guns in the world." They say that they do not think these agents really care for the country that we have not a first-class battleship, as those of other nations are reckoned, in the fleet; not a big ship in the navy with an elevation of more than fifteen degrees, while those of other navies range in elevation from twenty to thirty degrees?

NOT A HORSE TRIFLE.

"The Gopher," an anonymous sheet circulated in Los Angeles, publishes a scurrilous attack on Walter Bordwell, calling him a horse thief and printing a long story to that effect, based upon a lawyer's argument against Judge Bordwell in an eastern court. Nothing in it, nothing in it! The Times refuses to believe that Judge Bordwell ever was or ever could be a horse thief—but he has come pretty near making a monkey of himself in his recent political antics.

STEPHENS NOT A REPUBLICAN.

By consenting to be a party to the tricky plays of Gov. Johnson and accepting the appointment of Governor Stephens as his friend, Congressman Stephens has turned his back completely on the Republican party. A short time ago Stephens was loud in his professions that he desired to get back into the Republican fold, but the handshakes of King Hiram were too much for him, weak, weak. He always was. He has classified himself for all time as a political renegade.

RE-EMPLOYMENT OF STRIKERS.

The employers of Longshoremen at San Pedro would be unworthy of the protection which has been given them by the authorities of Los Angeles if they yielded to the demands of the strikers to be taken back to a body, as this could only be done by discharging the fearless and faithful union workers who have been employed in the places vacated by the strikers. The employers will give work to strikers individually, but not as a body, and it may be predicted that in due season they will not select men who beat boys who were carrying food, nor those who fired a building and tried to murder thirty policemen.

WILSON DECLINES TO INTERFERE WITH THE SHARKS.

The people of Portman Creek in New Jersey are out on a mass attack on the sharks which killed two bathers at that seaside resort. They have dammed the creek mouth so as to prevent the escape of the sharks into Haverhill Bay. They have appealed to President Wilson for aid, but Secretary Redfield declares that nothing can be done except to watchfully wait, unless the humanitarian impulses of the Jersey should induce them to feed the poor hungry sharks with cats and dogs "and such small deer." In the meantime he suggests that the Matwaners abstain from bathing except in tubs or washbowls where sharks cannot get at them.

ROOSEVELT'S PLANS.

Col. Roosevelt has determined that there will be no war with Mexico and has therefore sidetracked the proposition to raise a division of volunteers of which he should be major-general. He is not a prohibitionist, for the New York Herald states that he is "sitting for a bust" at a sculptor's studio. He does not approve of the proposition of J. M. Parker to revive the remains of the Progressive party and nominate Victor Murdock for President and re-nominate the nomination of Parker for Vice-President. The colonel declared that he was not of politics and was "an exceedingly private citizen."

BOSS FLIN OF PENNSYLVANIA AND BOSS PARKER OF NEW YORK.

Flin of Pennsylvania and Boss Parker of New York had a conference with Roosevelt and declared against Parker's proposition to disintegrate the Progressive party. "It's easy enough to form a new party," said Mr. Flin. "The answer is to get the votes. I formed a new party once in four or five days and got 435,000 votes." The trio concluded that any substantial revivification of Progressivism could only result in aiding Wilson, and this year they were not helping the Democrats—not that anybody could discern with the naked eye.

CALIFORNIA'S CITIZEN SOLDIERS AT MONTEREY.

California's citizen-soldiers are making history while they are giving their vacations to their country at the military training camp in Monterey. This is an exhibition of the spirit of preparedness that goes far beyond a parade in civilian clothes through crowded thoroughfares, followed by a hot bath, a planked steak and a civilian bed. Twelve hundred men are living in army tents, feeding on regular army rations and standing the test of what Brig. Gen. Sibert has characterized as "the most intensive work that I have ever seen, but the results obtained are commensurate with the endeavor."

These men are mostly drawn from what is generally termed "the higher walks of life." They are business, commercial and professional men; two-thirds of the men in camp have a business rating in Bradstreet's; men who are accustomed to command departments as though it were an honor to obey. Officers grown white in the service of their country, the never in their career have they seen private soldiers so eager for work and so well equipped physically to respond to the arduous tests.

These men are paying their own way in return for the privilege of learning how to render their country intelligent organized service in the hour of need. The Democratic pork barrel has broken all previous records, but its appropriations running into the billions failed to provide enough to maintain these military training camps. The men buy their equipment at a price which gives to the government a handsome profit; they pay for their meals twice the actual cost; and several thousand dollars were subscribed by patriotic civilians in order that there might be aviation, radio and engineering sections.

The effect on the regular soldiers themselves has been marked; the non-commissioned officers were expecting to confront a regiment of dilettantes, of men who would not endure any of the rigors of actual camp life, but who expected to play at soldiering in gloves and spurs. They have found instead a regiment of men who are physically far above the average of volunteer troops and who are mentally able to grasp in three days more than the average recruit learns in three weeks. They have found a body of men who do not measure their patriotism in dollars and cents, who are willing to protect what they enjoy. The fallacy of the allegation of social agitators that business and professional men are moral cowards and physical weaklings has been effectively exposed.

What shall be the future of this movement is problematical; a timid administration may permit it to languish for lack of government encouragement and support; a strong one would continue with a course of winter instruction and would weld these men into a reserve body that could be called upon to furnish officers for volunteer companies in case of actual warfare. One thing has been accomplished: The metal of the American citizen-soldier has been tested and not found wanting. The physical and moral strain is still without taint. Given the intelligent leadership and provisions for training, and the American volunteer soldier has no superior.

TOO MANY BOND ISSUES.

In the monthly financial letter of the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank of Los Angeles Vice-President J. A. Graeme has made a strong, logical and felicitous presentation of the necessity of doing away with the direct primary, the initiative, the referendum and the recall. He says of these fads of Socialism:
"The elections held in California during the last few months indicate that the tide of public opinion is turning from radicalism to conservatism, and that the time is not far distant when the direct primary, the initiative, the referendum and the recall will be voted into the discard with the same unanimity than characterized their adoption."
The habit of voting bond issues for every conceivable purpose that the rapacity of Progressive grafters could conceive has of late received a check. The people have realized that the money obtained from the sale of bonds has in many instances been squandered without benefit to anybody except the grafters who induced the issuance of the bonds. Mr. Graeme shows that the State of California, its cities, counties and various school and irrigation districts have now outstanding bonds to the amount of $252,837,504. Conceding that all of these bonds are to run for forty years from date of issuance, payable one-fortieth of principal annually, and that they bear interest at 4 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, it would take to discharge them the sum total of $460,229,777.

In other words, the people in the end pay interest the sum of $207,402,273, for the privilege of spending the original $252,837,504 borrowed on bond issues. In some instances the bonds sold at a premium, but the sum thus realized amounts to little in the long run. The voters did not stop to figure the cost when they voted for a bond issue. They voted on a "let-her-go-God-like-basis." A majority of them had no property to be affected, and they belonged, either through necessity or inclination, to the non-paying class whose members spend as they go. They did not stop to think that they carried their full share of the burden. They paid it in increased cost of food, rent and shelter. With every toll drop that oozed from the brow of labor they aided to fertilize the crop that the tax-eaters gathered and devoured. The grafters will spend money unwisely and unnecessarily just as long as the voters will let them. Extravagance has gotten into the blood of the officeholders of the country. It is now up to the voters whether the property owned by them shall be still further encumbered by bond issues.

The recent elections in Los Angeles, says Mr. Graeme, would indicate that in this unfortunate city—unfortunate in that for several years she has submitted the management of her affairs to a group of irresponsible reformers who have thrown caution to the winds in their extravagance—the voters have concluded that they will not vote any further bonds.

The State has been no better than the city as far as running into debt and spending beyond its income is concerned. At the next State election the people are to vote on the issuance of $15,000,000 additional road bonds. These bonds, in view of the present trend of the voting public, will be defeated. Let anyone who contemplates voting for these bonds remember that, figuring on the basis last stated, it will take just $17,000,000 to redeem them after they are once issued. It may be that we want more roads, but many voters will argue that it is better to do without additional roads rather than incur additional indebtedness for them. They will probably bear in mind the fact that it will take $27,300,000 to finally redeem the bond issue of $15,000,000 asked for.

In earlier days the country roads were kept in repair by requiring residents of the vicinity to work upon them each a certain number of days. It might be well in some localities to resort to the ancient practice.

NATIONAL MILITARY TRAINING IS NEEDED.

Attention is again called to the ballot on National Military Training which is appearing in The Times every other day and Sundays in co-operation with the Association for National Service.

The association, of which Gen. S. B. M. Young is president, is making a spirited campaign to arouse the country to the need of preparedness and to gather evidence for the citizens to be used in the Congress, which is well known for its eagerness to do the "popular" thing, will probably see a light and pass some one of the desirable preparedness bills that are now tramped coldly.

The citizen of military age who is not willing to take up arms for the defense of his country and who is not willing to train himself so that he may do so with soldierly and effective readiness, is a very poor-spirited individual—is one of the disagreeable type that is ready enough to accept privileges, but shirks away from obligations. No nation can maintain its unity or prosperity unless its citizens are loyal to their government; and no matter how loyal they may be, their loyalty cannot be effective in times of war which may be brought on suddenly by an aggressive and implacable enemy unless they are trained to soldierly duties.

Every country engaged in the war, except England, had compulsory military training. And though England had the greatest of navies, effectively shutting out invasion, it was many desperate months before her citizens could be put into fit condition for creditable service at the front. It is appalling to think of what the fate of France would have been had not every man been trained to take up arms. The United States has neither such a navy as England to hold an enemy in check, nor citizens who are trained, nor such citizen soldiers as France and Germany to withstand the invader. We have no defenses worthy of the name. The whole of our regular army and National Guard would not be adequate to defend even the city of New York if the defense and assault were on the same scale as the campaigns waged in Europe. But if every citizen were a soldier, then a series of rings of steel could be drawn around our greatly-exposed seacoasts and borders, and no enemy would be eager to try his fortune at breaking through that ring.

And every ballot for the National Military Training that is signed and forwarded to The Times will do its small but valuable part in securing adequate defenses for this country.

Why Not Adjourn?

FOR THE DEUTSCHLAND.

The Times' 'umby' opes that it is not violating that strict neutrality which it has ever maintained in conflict, to express the wish that the Deutschland, with her new coat of invisible paint and her cargo of rubber and nickel, may slip out to sea on a dark night, and the British cruisers that are watching her at the Cape, and next be heard from at Bremen. And The Times further expresses a fond desire that in the meantime the Bremen—a sister ship of the Deutschland—may arrive with another cargo of dyestuffs and, in turn, load with nickel and rubber and beef and flour and blankets and any other necessities of life that Germany needs, and safely discharge her cargo at a German port and that these may be followed by a fleet of merchant submarines.

The success of German underwater merchant ships will compel England and the allied powers to build and equip similar boats, and there will be no further need of armed submarines—the sharks of the ocean—except as an aid to the fortification of ocean coast cities.

Three war shall have ceased the construction and use of merchant submarines will probably increase until they will supersede surface sailing ships, for a submarine ordinarily steams on the surface and only sinks in order to avoid an enemy or to escape. The tourist will say to the captain:

"Did I but promise to embark with thee Upon the surface of a summer sea And when the storms arise and tempests roar, I'll be the first to take thee to the shore."

Desert the sinking ship and seek the shore. "No, Cap, we don't give a whoop in Sherman's description of war for the cyclone that is coming this way. Down we go for an hour or two, and the motion of the waters will not affect our dinners. The poet who commented on mad me will not again say—

"A seaship man I never saw, one man leans over the rail. Muses awhile and then returns with fear. But he had only wandered after a Partisan glance to take

At those strange coils of moony fire that blizzards the inside of a head. With ghastly calm he takes a pipe, in minutes five or less hence. He'll feel again that ecstasy produced by phosphorescence."

The tourist will indeed enjoy a brief moment for it will enable him to go where McKinley went and view the monotony of a surface voyage.

WHAT THEY TALKED ABOUT.

[Wall Street Journal:] A private dinner party to meet a distinguished English club expert was given at a New York club on June 15.

The host was a railroad president, and there were three other presidents present, with the chairman of the principal joint railway committees, several vice-presidents and directors, and one newspaper editor, making up with the guest of honor a total of sixteen. What a chance for a yellow newspaper to talk of "Gary dinners," and how easy to convince a large section of the public that something must necessarily have taken place inimical to the public interests, through a gentlemen's agreement or a plain conspiracy.

What they talked about was the experience of the British guest tracing "missing" men in France. This and a few good stories by the host and others, made up the whole conversation. Railroad matters were not once touched upon.

AMERICANISM.

If I elect to see a piece of Madagascar, Greenland, Greece or any other clime, I'd like to feel that Uncle Sam will guard me well, wherever I am, without a waste of time. I'd like to feel as safe in Rome, as I am feeling here at home, with cops on every hand; I'd like to see insolent when I, with hauteur of a prince, proclaim my native land. When I traveled in Italy, the people stopped me on my way, and when I cried, "Unhand me, skates!" I'm from the great United States, they greeted me with cheers and a guard of honor. I was a fountain pen, my dollar watch and my new tin drinking cup. I notified my government and asked that battleships be sent, as fast as they could, to shoot that country full of holes, and the thing was done with ten-foot poles, and get my chateaux back. But Uncle Sam just wrote some notes, instead of going after the robbers, and some one's done; and so I say Americans will find it is the best of plans to stick around at home.

THE PREPAREDNESS WE FACE IN MEXICO.

(CONTRIBUTED TO THE TIMES)
BY JOHN L. W. BIRKINBINE,
Formerly Chief Engineer, the Oaxaca Coal and Iron Company, Mexico, and the Pueblo and Pacific Railroad; Author of "The Story of Iron."

THE Mexicans as a whole are not militaristic. In the mass, they are peaceful agriculturists whose dominant passion is love of their little landholdings. Compared with the total population, the "fighting Mexicans" are relatively few.

Until the occasion arose for the dispatch of American troops to the border by former President Taft, there had persisted, from the time of the Mexican War, in the Mexican heart a wholesome respect, tempered by fear, for the genuine American. On the day before President Taft issued his order, Americans in Mexico City were hustled off the sidewalks; on the day after, the most conspicuous of those Mexican "bullies" hastily took to the gutter. This is not mere antipathy; it is literal fact.

With the withdrawal of those troops from the border, Americans resident in Mexico again became "gringos," the Mexican equivalent of our own contemptuous "greaser" for a Mexican. The withdrawal from Vera Cruz later was the deathblow to our prestige.

It is true enough that there exists no Mexican nation as such, there has never existed so much as a Mexican people. At best, the population of Mexico has been and is an agglomeration of Indian tribes and half-breeds only slightly more coherent than were the Aztecs. Such organizations as they can effect are merely those of many classes or tribal adherents, attached to individual chieftains during the periods of their ascendancy.

While they are so little united, every leader they have had who declared they would unite against the detested Americans, was strictly accurate of statement. They have been told, and they implicitly believe, that the Americans intend to take away their land, for which they care more than for anything else in the world.

The United States confronts not only a population welded together by enmity but inspired now by a complete confidence that it holds over us an almost insuperable superiority. In practical consequences, that means we shall have on our hands a really large and extraordinarily difficult war, with genuine Mexican as an appendix remaining continually painful until it shall have been totally exterminated.

Carranza is not always a good judge of political prospects, but boards of trustees of colleges are generally composed of business men and can be counted on to give an appointment to a man of business. A college out in Illinois has offered President Wilson a position after March 4, 1917.

It looks as if Carranza is as a political infatuation. Whatever other motives, those of which he is aware, the Carranza is not a man who is ever to President for his own sake. Carranza is not a man who is ever to President for his own sake.

There is no doubt that Carranza is well prepared for the eventuality, and he has anticipated the United States on "preparedness" to an extent for which, now, only our emergency munitions, without surplus or equipment trains.

Democrats claim that the commission will take the commission out of the commission.

The Democrats have an amendment to the tariff bill that would have the tariff bill.

It looks as if Carranza is as a political infatuation. Whatever other motives, those of which he is aware, the Carranza is not a man who is ever to President for his own sake.

There is no doubt that Carranza is well prepared for the eventuality, and he has anticipated the United States on "preparedness" to an extent for which, now, only our emergency munitions, without surplus or equipment trains.

Democrats claim that the commission will take the commission out of politics. But they will be too busy to take the party out of politics for a while.

The Democrats have filed amendment to the tariff commission bill that would have allowed appointment of Secretaries and Redfield as members of the body. That was a bit too far even the Democrats.

It looks as if corporate law as a political influence has been day. Whatever other laws arise, those of which the nation of the United States has made the center of the nation.

Democrats claim that Wilson will be the 25 per cent. of the last election in 1916, or when the most of the President is returned to the White House?

They are counting on the election of 1912. The Democrats are sitting on a glass egg.

There will be the greatest national trade adjustment in the after the war, and for this reason people must be made to understand the situation they are in.

It is suggested that the nation should set off a national convention district, build a national there, and offer it to the parties for their deliberations.

Where there would be from the shows, movies and books, a visit to the national convention to turn the delegates from the government. Why should they be pardoned and released?

Will the English government release Clemenceau in the case of Roger Casement? Sir Edward Carson, before the war, was a member of the English cabinet.

John French, the English minister, the United States to the war, who led the revolt against the British in South Africa, and the government. Why should they be pardoned and released?

ZABEL QUITE OUT OF LUCK

Team-mates Refuse to Score Run for Him.

Ote Crandall Heaves a Neat Exhibition.

Chance Bosses the Battle from Bench.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The full-fledged rear Oaks lubricated themselves with three hits in the sixth inning, which was sufficient to place them in front, and they remained there, Los Angeles being unable to catch up. That's partly because the Angels didn't have the pep, the pitching of Dr. O. Crandall taking it out of them.

Rowdy's men played like a lot of champions in the disguise of tail-enders, winning 1 to 0. The unnatural conduct of the Oaks since arriving here is bound to cause talk, and it continued, may get into the newspapers. For a talented team and difficult to suppress.

In some ways, George Washington Zabel, Kansas patriot, Chicago chemist and California bridge player, pitched even a better game than Dr. Crandall, allowing five hits as against the Doc's six, and three of those of Doc were doubles.

Angels, however, seem to be constitutionally opposed to making any runs for Zabel, and he again lost by one tally as he had done on numerous occasions before. Plainly, the Los Angeles players believe that Zabel should bat himself around the bases and in that way make his own runs.

QUITE WILD. Zabel, either from home cooking or something else, was inclined to be wild in the early innings, and this kept him in the hole a good deal of the time. A local newspaper has been running a series of articles on "Where to Go on Walking Trips, and How to Get Them." Zabel evidently believed that these referred to first base. Anyway, he started out to make a run, but he was stopped by a rule, acting as a guide to point out the way to get there.

Had he not acted as a guide and philosopher, some of the visiting batters might have got mixed up and walked to third base or to the bench, or climbed over the grandstand. Zabel staged four personal fouls, and two of them in the first inning when the road was still smooth and the walking good.

All the visitors seemed to enjoy these hikes, and returned refreshed and exhilarated. Next to sitting still, they know of no better exercise than walking. They would rather do it than run.

HIDDEN. Dr. O. Crandall certainly had something up his sleeve. It may have been a box of pills or a bottle of knockout drops, or again, it may have been simply his arm. Then, to make it worse, he kept spitting saliva and germs on the ball. Possibly he hoped that the batters would inhale the germs, and in that way work up a few profitable cases for himself. It is even rumored that he and Earl Houk, the singing undertaker, have formed a silent partnership. Whatever the Doc used yesterday it certainly took all the life out of our superb athletes.

Frank Chance conducted his team from the seclusion of the dugout. As he did not have on his uniform he did not care to appear in public. In lieu of a uniform he wore his store clothes. That was because he didn't know at what moment his tooth would begin aching again and drive him to the dentist. Several times during the game he had the jumping toothache, but stuck around in the hope that the tooth would jump clear out of his head.

The support of both pitchers was built proof and calculated to knock the error column clear off the base score. Rubie Ellis helded all the way from the flag pole in left to San Pedro. He robbed both Barry and Gardner of hits, and in that way got even with Lane and Kenworthy for having robbed him. Berger could have signed the name of Eddie Collins to a check and nobody would have hesitated to cash it. Johnny Crandall was a real star. His back-handed stab of Barber's grounder in the eighth was no myth, but it belonged in the classics.

Oakland got three on in the first without besmirching the home plate.

YANKS HELP MILITIAMEN

BY A. W. WINEY.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The New York American League club has shipped a supply of baseballs, bats and other paraphernalia to the camp of the Twenty-first Regiment, New York National Guard, at McAllen, Tex. It was announced by the club tonight. This action was taken in reply to a request from a private in Co. L, of the regiment, who wrote to Manager Donovan of the club stating that the national game was the only sport in which the boys on border duty had an opportunity to indulge.

The baseball event on the program will also provide a lot of excitement, with Haycock, Messenger, Vint and other heroes on the job. Each of these front-drive experts has a hold on the medal.

Douglas Grant Wins from Jack Neville.

Harold Lamb Also Among Survivors.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

DEL MONTE, July 19.—It is doubtful if Del Monte will get a finer spectacle during the present tournament than that which was provided today, when Douglas Grant defeated Jack Neville by a single stroke after a heart-breaking match of thirty-six holes.

The business combined grit, intelligence and skill to such a degree that it afforded the large gallery which followed the combat with an electrical antidote to the warm weather.

SOME LUCK. The very little breaks of fortune the thrills and frills were in just enough evidence to grant the whole thing something of the element of chance and this is what people who watch golf desire most of all.

To Neville belongs the credit for graceful acceptance of defeat after some very trying breaks of fortune on the final hole of the match. Fate cast her sorry finger over his path in winning at this point of the battle. The men were all square when they took off for the clubhouse green.

Grant's second found the green, and although Neville's recovery from trouble was magnificent, he had little chance. The ball falling at the brink of a trap which guards the green, the ball's approach was short of the pin by fifteen feet, while Grant laid his approach putt within least five feet of the cup. Needing this to win, the Northern California champion faced the strain well, holed his putt, and the match was put to rest from the edge of the green and this thing ended.

On the general run of play both men were practically evenly matched. The whole thing was streaked with luck, and the victory of Grant was a triumph of the "wise head" to be one of the real contenders for the championship.

Sharing almost equal interest with the Grant-Neville match and providing something in the real order of a tennis match was the victory of Roger Lapham of San Francisco over J. S. Worthington of the Middle Surrey (Eng.) Club, a man who was captured by the "wise head" to be one of the real contenders for the championship.

The balance of the favorites finished the day in good shape. Heinrich Schmidt was in good style in the morning round, and the fourth round of the day. Charlie Grimes, former junior western champion, had farwell to the tournament today, losing to Walker Salisbury of the Salt Lake Golf and Country Club by the margin of 3 up.

MANGHAM AGAIN. Clarence Mangham, the San Antonio boy, continued his winning today, taking F. H. Okeefe of San Jose into camp by the margin of six up and five to play.

Hoover Bankard and Harold Lamb eliminated the Balch couple from the winning margin today. Bankard defeated Dewitt Balch, the youngest member of the family, by the count of 4 and 3 after being down at the completion of the morning round, while Lamb disposed of the elder Balch, who is president of the Western Association, by the margin of 1 and 3.

It looks as if the best matches for tomorrow will be those which array Douglas Grant against E. S. Armstrong and Hoover Bankard against Heinrich Schmidt.

ATHLETES TO HAVE TRYOUT.

Held Two Weeks Before the Big Event.

Everybody Eligible to Run in Trials.

Some Already Working to Get in Shape.

The Southern California athletes chosen for the Far Western track and field championships to be held at San Diego met at the Los Angeles Athletic Club last night to discuss the training of the different men.

The track committee finally decided that the best way to be sure that all athletes picked for the trip to San Diego will be in the best of condition would be to hold a preliminary tryout meet on August 5, two weeks before the San Diego meet. In this way the committee will have a chance to see what kind of condition the athletes are in and find out whether or not they are worth sending to San Diego.

This preliminary meet, which is a probability will be held on the T.M.C.A. track, will also serve another purpose. In making out the list of men to go south, the committee may have overlooked some worthy athletes that deserves to go. Instead of some that may have been picked, if it is impossible for any man to attend the preliminary meet, he will be allowed to run against time.

The question of training was taken up with the different athletes, and it was found that most of them have already started training for the meet. A number of the sprinters are middle distance men will work on the track and road for many years. He is now a resident of Venice and active in many branches of sport both professional and amateur.

Some dive, this.

Here is Jean Perkins making his weekly dive from the top of a 125 foot ladder at Hollenbeck Park. Perkins is a movie actor, being employed by the Signal Film company. He holds several world's diving records. In 1910 having dropped into a six foot square concrete tank from a height of 100 feet.

LANGER TO COMPETE IN L.A.A.C. SWIM TONIGHT.

LUDY LANGER, holder of a whole flock of national and world's long-distance swimming records, will make his final appearance in a tank at the L.A.A.C. tonight before his last eastern vacation, upon which he will defend his quarter and half-mile titles in New York and St. Louis.

Lady will appear in two events at the club swim, the 100-yard dash and the medley race. On Sunday Langer will take part in the annual surf race at Ocean Park, and either Monday or Tuesday he will hop a train for the hot and feverish East.

Tonight Langer meets Bob Howard and Guy Sylvester in the century dash, all three starting from scratch, while Jack Kilburn will get a slight head start. Howard and Sylvester are both holders of faster marks than Langer in the hundred, but Lady is swimming in wonderful form, and will certainly make them hustle.

SOME WORKOUT. Yesterday Langer swam a quarter in the surf with several extra bathing suits draped over his head. Then he ran a little on the beach and rowed a heavy surf boat around some. Then he came into the city, played three hot games of basketball, and a fast lap in the backstroke, and then wound up by pacing off an unburied hundred in 1:08.

Allen Allen, national woman's living champion, will appear on the program with her galaxy of diving nymphs, and Billy Williams, 1915 national men's diving champion, will attempt to provide competition, assisted by Billy Gilbert, one and a half champion of the Key Stone Komic Foundry, and various other star divers.

FRONT DRIVE. The breaststroke event on the program will also provide a lot of excitement, with Haycock, Messenger, Vint and other heroes on the job. Each of these front-drive experts has a hold on the medal.

COMEDY. In addition to these events there will be a relay race, a tug-of-war, a short-lived men in the league, is about to follow in the footsteps of George W. Zabel. Johnny Butler and Miss Bertha Wedgewood of Oakland are to be married next week. Butler and his bride-to-be are old-time friends, having become acquainted while attending high school together in Los Angeles.
